VIM IN BENNINGS RACES. BRISK BIDS Roundsman, an Added Starter, Wins the Congressional Stakes in a Drive with Septour.

Washington, April 29.-There was a vim Montauk Sold from His Stable about some of the races here to-day that was positively refreshing, yet there was little in the card that could be termed attraction and the residue was never headed, winning tractive, and the attendance was again small. The one stake decided during the afternoon was the Congressional, for three year-olds. It furnished one of the best contested races of the meeting. The winner was J. A. Bennett's Roundsman, who Some Excellent Bargains Secured by was an added starter. He was top weight and beat his field in clever fashion.

Washington, April 29.—The decision of the Supreme Court of Virginia is a surprise to 1 against Love Wisely, 17 to 1 along the Labrador, and 25 to 1 against Tousint, Dynamo, The Winter King and Buphalus.

Nine two-year-olds went to the post for a Wilbraham Plate, of 200 sowereigns, but two-year-olds, at five furlongs (Rous would stop attempts to open the tracks, surse), it was won by A. F. Calvert's agittarius, by Forager, out of Dolly Agnes, moch Wishard's bay gelding, by Himyar, at of Misa Austin, was second, and Sir, Biundell Maple's Barn Door, by Compaon, out of Masurka, third. Nine ran, in inding Lamerock. The betting was 4 to against Sagittarius, 12 to 1 against the state.

RACING IN THE RAIN. LI' Sauteur, an Imported Horse, Defeats Maurice and Ben Eder in the Big Handicap at Nashville.

Nashville, Tenn., April 20.-Six races were run at Cumberland Park to-day, in a pouring rain, which converted the track to a sea of mud. The stake, the Duncan Hotel The Well-Known Trainer Arrives Handleap, which promised so much, had only three starters, Ben Eder, Maurice and the imported horse, Sauteur. The inter-was the outsider in the betting, at 234 to 1, while Maurice always reigned favorite

Sauteur took the lead at the fail of the punched out by three parts of a length from Maurice, who was coming strong, and would Maurice, who was coming strong, and would have won in a few jumps more, Ben Eder was a bad third, four lengths back. Had Sherrer been strong enough to hustle Maurice along in the first part of the race, he would have won. Blasco, who won the fourth race at a mile and an eighth, was the solitary favorite to win. The Pelham Stable captured three races with Blasco, Begue and Glen Albyn, and piloted two winners. Summaries:

1.525 Louis Kittson Parts with the Stock Farm

Erdenhelm stock farm near Chestnut Hill on the outskirts of this city, containing about 250 acres, has been sold by Louis Citizon to Robert N. Carson. The price paid is said to have been about $100,000. Erdenheim, which, prior to 1882, was the property of Aristides Welch, was the birth-place of many noted horses, among them froquois, the winner of the English derby in 1881, and Parole.

On the lawn of Erdenhelm lie buried beneath two great stabs of granite the English horse Leamington, that has left his

GALILEE SEEMS IMPROVED.

GALLEE SEEMS IMPROVED.

There was a decided change for the better as regards the weather, the morning being warm and pleasant. The horses were sent along, but there was little or no really fast work.

W. DONOHUE was the first to show. Lazzarone was sent a mile and a half at a steady pace. Gallilee walked and trotted and seemed to be all right, so that his lameness must have been something trifling. Applegate and Harrington did a steady two-mile gallop.

J. W. BOGERS'S Clifford, Lucania and Runover were bowling along at a good, striding pace.
